

Indian Ocean Memorandum of Understanding on port State control List of Banned Vessels by Member Authorities

Updated on : 29.09.2023

Sr.No.	Ship Name	IMO No.	Period of Ban	Reason	Authority
Australia
1	Big Lilly	9150406	29.09.2023 to 29.12.2023	Systemic poor maintenance leading to multiple detentions.	Australia
2	Maryam	9272864	28.05.2021 to 28.05.2024	AMSA has issued a direction notice to refuse access to the Panama flagged bulk carrier Maryam IMO 9272864 for 36 months due to systemic failures in relation to ensuring seafarer welfare and maintenance onboard.	Australia
3	MSXT Emily	9929302	23.08.2023 to 22.08.2024	Systemic underpayment of wages and breaches of the Article IV of the MLC.	Australia
4	BBC Pearl	9504786	10.07.2023 to 05.01.2024	AMSA has issued a Direction to the Antigua and Barbuda flagged bulk carrier BBC Pearl IMO 9504786 for 180 days due to systemic poor performance of the Company resulting in the ship being detained.	Australia
India

Sr.No.	Ship Name	IMO No.	Period of Ban	Reason	Authority
1	MT TULIP	9240914	17.12.2020 to Further notice	1. The Owners have violated the orders issued by Directorate for a single direct ballast voyage to repair port and continued to trade with serious deficiencies even carrying cargo onboard. 2. The Owners have changed the flag of the vessel without any intimation to the Registrar in lieu of complying with the order issued by the Directorate.	India
Iran
1	SOFIA	9015761	PERMANENT	Ship inspected on 03.06.2017 and was banned due to single hull	Iran
2	AMAL7	9057812	PERMANENT	Ship inspected on 17.10.2016 and was banned due to single hull	Iran
3	TAMARA	8965141	PERMANENT	Ship inspected on 13.04.2017 and was banned due to single hull	Iran
Myanmar
1	COBIJA	7330399	PERMANENT	Sailing under fake certification	Myanmar
2	BRATASENA	9271236	24.06.2020 to Further notice	As reported by the Authority of Myanmar, Ship sailed out illegally without permission from the port Authority and switched off AIS and also violated Myanmar national laws and other guidelines.	Myanmar