Notification by Sweden - new regulations concerning entry restrictions to Sweden due to the worldwide coronavirus pandemic (COVID-19)

Secretary General,

I write to give an update on the measures taken by Sweden in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

We would like to bring ship owners’ attention to the requirement for a negative covid-19 test result upon entry into Sweden. We encourage ship owners to notify their passengers about this requirement before commencing the journey to Sweden. We would also like to inform ship owners and seafarers that the requirement to present a negative covid-19 test result is not applicable to seafarers. The new regulations enter into effect on February 6, 2021.
